Banks Are Over $5,000,000 Below the 25 Per Cent Legal Requirements, which Had No Effect.

New York, July 8.—Money on call nominally 4 per cent.

Market was very dull today, less than 37,000 shares having changed hands during the two hours of business.

At the start prices ran off 1/4 to 3/8 per cent. The market began to improve soon after the opening and developed considerable strength.

The general list, however, receded only fractionally and closed steadily in tone.

The banks are now $4,022,223 below the 25 per cent legal requirements.

This is the first time they have been deficient since December 6, 1930, when they were $2,429,500 below the legal limit.

It is proper to add that banks are in a better position than the statement indicates, the July dividend disbursements being only partially reflected in the exhibit.
